F8(a) Finally, one last important thing. We are inviting everyone who completes this interview to spend an expenses paid weekend in Canberra on October 22 to 24 discussing the referendum and talking with constitutional experts and political leaders about it.

The discussions will take place in Old Parliament House, and large portions of the weekend will be televised nationally by the ABC and by Channel 9 on 'Sixty Minutes'.

All travel, hotel, and meal expenses will be paid, and participants will also receive $100 on top of that as a gesture of appreciation. We believe you'll find it fun, and an important opportunity to make your voice heard.

It doesn't matter if you don't know much about the referendum at this point. You are part of a scientific random sample, and we need your help to ensure that the sample represents the Australian people.

May we pass your name on to the organisers of the weekend so that they can give you more information and you can then decide whether you might like to go?
