

Many of the following are questions not everyone has much opinion about. Whenever you come to one you have no real opinion about you should circle the number for “no opinion” and move on to the next one.

Let’s begin with a general question about the European Union.

Q1. Some people think that your country’s membership in the EU is an extremely bad thing. Suppose these people are at one end of a 0-to-10 scale, at point 0. Other people think that your country’s membership in the EU is an extremely good thing. Suppose these people are at the other end of the scale, at point 10. People who are exactly in the middle are at point 5, and of course other people have opinions at other points between 0 and 10. Where would you place your views on this scale, or do you have any opinion about that?

PLEASE CIRCLE THE APPROPRIATE NUMBER

You have been thinking about what you would like to see happen in each of a number of policy areas. Now let's talk about the level at which you think these decisions should be made —by the EU, by individual member states, etc.

Q17. Let's start with a scale of 0 to 10, where 0 means that the individual member states make all the decisions, 10 means that the EU makes all the decisions, and 5 is exactly in the middle. Higher numbers mean more coordination between countries, while lower numbers mean more independent decision making by individual countries. On this 0 to 10 scale, how much of the decision-making in each of the following areas should be made by the individual member states versus the EU, or do you have any opinion about that?

17j. Diplomatic relations	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10		99

Q18. Some people think all the decisions made at the EU level should require only the agreement of a large majority of member states, representing a large majority of the EU's population. Suppose these people are at one end of a 0-to-10 scale, at point 0. Other people think all the decisions made at the EU level should require the unanimous agreement of all the member states. Suppose these people are the other end of the scale, at point 10. People who are exactly in-between are at point 5, and of course other people have opinions at other points between 0 and 10. Where would you place your views on this scale, when it comes to ...
