Q1FU

Our first questions are about U.S. foreign policy and the current situation in Iraq.

Here are several possible long-range foreign policy goals the U.S. might have. Please select how high a priority you feel we should give to each one by using a number from 1 to 10, where 1 is no priority at all, 5 is average priority, and 10 is the top priority. On a scale from 1-10, how high a priority should each of the following be as a long-range foreign policy goal?

	0 - 10	Can't Say
ensuring adequate energy supplies for the U.S.
preventing the spread of weapons of mass destruction aiding the interests of U.S. business abroad fighting terrorism
providing food and medical help to poor countries protecting the U.S. from attack protecting human rights in other countries reducing world poverty

Q2FU

Next I'm going to read you a few statements America's role in world affairs. We'd like to know how strongly you agree or disagree with each.

This country would be better off if we just stayed home and did not concern ourselves with problems in other areas of the world.

agree strongly

agree somewhat

neither agree nor disagree

disagree somewhat

disagree strongly haven't thought much about this

Q3FU

It is the job of the U.S. as a global leader to protect the world from countries that are likely to use weapons of mass destruction.

neither agree nor disagree
disagree somewhat
disagree strongly haven't thought much about that

Q5

The next section concerns issues of international trade and the U.S. economy.

What sort of impact would you say that NAFTA - the North American Free Trade Agreement - has had so far on the American economy? Would you say it has:

helped a lot helped somewhat not had much effect
hurt somewhat, hurt a lot haven't thought much about that

Q6

And how strongly would you agree or disagree with the following statements about trade?

The US should reduce government subsidies protecting US farms and industries from competition.

agree strongly
agree somewhat
neither agree nor disagree
disagree somewhat

Q9

Thinking back over the past few months, would you say the national economy is:

in much better shape
in somewhat better shape about the same in somewhat worse shape in much worse shape haven't thought much about it

Q10

Now looking forward to the next few months, do you expect the national economy to get better or worse?

get much better get somewhat better stay about the same get somewhat worse get much worse haven't thought much about that

Q11FU

Which one of these two statements do you agree with more strongly— or do you agree with them about equally?

(1) As a global leader, the U.S. should spend more money to help fight world hunger in developing countries.

(2) The U.S. should concentrate on dealing with problems at home first.

Agree with (1) more strongly
Agree with (2) more strongly Agree with both about equally haven't you thought much about this

Q12FU

Here's another pair:

Which one of these two statements do you agree with more strongly— or do you agree with them about equally?

(1) The U.S. should be promoting democracy in other countries.

(2) How other countries are governed is not our concern.

Agree with (1) more strongly
Agree with (2) more strongly Agree with both about equally haven't you thought much about this

Q13

Here are a few more statements with which we'd like to know how strongly you agree or disagree. Here's the first.

Most political issues are so complicated that a person like me can't really understand what's going on.

agree strongly
agree somewhat
neither agree nor disagree
disagree somewhat
disagree strongly

[RANDOMIZE LIST OF CANDIDATES, KEEP THIS RANDOMIZED ORDER FOR REST OF CANDIDATE LISTS]

Q19

The next section concerns your impressions of the various candidates running for President. First we have a set of questions about how you would describe some of these candidates. For each candidate we want to know first if the word "sincere" describes him extremely well, quite well, not too well, or not well at all? Please indicate your answer by checking the appropriate column for each candidate. Or if you don't feel you've seen enough of the candidate to say, just check "don't know."

Does "sincere" describe each candidate:

	Extremely well	Pretty well	Not too well	Not well at all	Don't know
George W. Bush
Howard Dean
John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q20

The next word is "intelligent." Does intelligent describe each of them:

	Extremely well	Pretty well	Not too well	Not well at all	Don't know
George W. Bush
Howard Dean

John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q21

Next, how well does “thinks like I do” describe each of them:

	Extremely well	Pretty well	Not too well	Not well at all	Don't know
George W. Bush
Howard Dean
John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q22

Next, we'd like to get your feelings toward the presidential candidates using what is sometimes called a "feeling thermometer." Ratings between 50 degrees and 100 degrees mean that you feel favorable and warm toward the candidates. Ratings between 0 degrees and 50 degrees mean that you don't feel favorable that you don't care too much for that candidate. You would rate the candidate at the 50 degree mark if you don't feel particularly warm or cold. If you don't know enough to rate a given candidate, just check "can't say."

	0 - 100	Can't Say
George W. Bush
Howard Dean
John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Dennis Kucinich

Q23

Next are a couple of questions about President's Bush's performance as president.

How would you evaluate President Bush's performance with respect to the war in Iraq?

Very Good

Good

Fair

Poor

Very Poor

Not sure/can't say

Q24

How about Bush's handing of the economy?

Very Good

Q25

Now we'd like you to think about some important issues. Some people think the federal government should provide fewer services such as health and education in order to lower taxes. Suppose these people are at one end of a scale, at point 1. Other people feel it is important for the federal government to provide more services even if it means higher taxes. Suppose these people are at the other end, at point 7. People who are exactly in the middle are at point 4, and of course other people have positions at points 2,3,5, or 6.

Where would you place yourself on this scale, or haven't you thought much about this?

Fewer Services/ Lower Taxes						More Services/ Higher Taxes	Haven't thought much about this
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Q26

Now, using the same scale, where would you place the following candidates? If you don't feel you know enough about a given candidate to say, just mark "Can't Say".

	Fewer Services/ Lower Taxes						More Services/ Higher Taxes	Can't Say
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
George W. Bush
Howard Dean
John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q27

Next think about the federal budget. Some people believe that we should spend much less money for defense and focus much more on solving domestic problems. Suppose these people are at one end of a scale, at point 1. Other people feel that defense spending should be greatly increased even if it means reduced spending on domestic problems. Suppose these people are at the other end, at point 7. People who are exactly in the middle are at point 4, and of course other people have positions at points 2,3,5, or 6. Where would you place yourself on this scale, or haven't you thought much about this?

Increase Defense Spending/ Decrease Domestic Spending						Decrease Defense Spending/ Increase Domestic Spending	Haven't thought much about this
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Q28

Now, using the same scale, where would you place the following candidates? If you don't feel you know enough about a given candidate to say, just mark "Can't Say".

	Increase Defense Spending/ Decrease Domestic Spending						Decrease Defense Spending/ Increase Domestic Spending	Can't Say
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
George W. Bush
Howard Dean
John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q29

Here's the next issue. Some people feel the United States should intervene militarily when its interests are threatened without working through international organizations such as the U.N and NATO. Other people feel that we should not intervene without first obtaining international approval and cooperation. Using the scale shown below, where would you place yourself, or haven't you thought much about this?

Intervene on our own						Intervene with UN approval	Haven't thought much about this
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Q30

Now, using the same scale, where would you place the following candidates? If you don't feel you know enough about a given candidate to say, just mark "Can't Say".

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
George W. Bush
Howard Dean

John Kerry
Wesley Clark
John Edwards
Al Sharpton

Q31

Here's the next one. Some people feel that we should pursue increased free trade even if we may lose some existing jobs. Other people feel that we should subsidize American industries even if that means we lose markets for our goods abroad. And of course, other people fall somewhere in between. Where would you place yourself on this issue, or haven't you thought much about this?

Support Free Trade						Protect US Industries	Haven't thought much about this
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Q32

Now, using the same scale, where would you place the following candidates? If you don't feel you know enough about a given candidate to say, just mark "Can't Say".
