According to Ralisa, "the general position of the main political parties at that time was on a left-right scale was: left - the Bulgarian Socialist Party, center-right - National Movement Simeon II, more to the right the United Democratic Forces. The Movement for Rights and Freedoms is a political party of the ethnic Turks and it describes its policies as center-right."

On a scale, the parties from Left to Right would be: BSP, NMS II, MRF and UDF. However, I am unclear where to make the cutoffs for these party placements.
