LORDVOT1 (Q19), LORDVOT2 (W19): The present House of Lords contains some Lords who are there by birth (hereditary peers) and some who have been appointed for life (life peers). All have a right to vote in the House of Lords. If you had to choose between these two statements, which one comes closer to your own view?

Hereditary peers should keep their right to vote in the House of Lords because they bring some independence into politics.

The fact that someone inherits a title should not give them a right to vote in the House of Lords.
